6. Thầy ơi Thầy cho em hỏi thêm về mục đích hay sự khác biệt giữa 2 cách tiếp cận PVO giữa TẬP II vs TẬP I ạ. Em đang hiểu 1 cái là tạo từ CONCEPT xuống EXAMPLE còn 1 cái là từ các EXAMPLE lên CONCEPT. Nhưng em mới chỉ đang hiểu nó đều là các cách mình nhập dữ liệu vào PVO còn em đang thắc mắc liệu là có dụng ý, ý nghĩa gì đằng sau cho việc sử dụng, tìm từ và cách tra từ vựng theo 2 cách tiếp cận này không ạ? Và ngoài 2 cách tiếp cận thì lý do Thầy chia Tập dịch thành 2 lớp TẬP như bây giờ ạ? Em cảm ơn Thầy nhiều ạ 🙏

1. Việc chia 2 lớp TẬP thì cơ bản là ko liên quan đến PVO. Chẳng qua là lượng kiến thức nhiều (gần 50 buổi học) thì tôi tách ra 2 lớp. Ai ko quá quan tâm đến hiểu sâu và phát triển cảm nhận từ vựng thì học một lớp là đủ. Đó là lý do lớp nào cũng phải học về PVO, tránh việc buộc phải học lớp nọ rồi mới học lớp kia.

PS. Giáo viên tiếng Anh là đối tượng mà tôi strongly recommend học cả 2 lớp TẬP vì chúng cung cấp cho bạn không chỉ kiến thức mà cả phương pháp để tự tìm ra câu trả lời cho 10 vạn câu hỏi tại sao, nhiều khi rất lặt vặt, về sử dụng từ vựng của học viên tương lai.

2. PVO học ở 2 lớp là một, với cùng nguyên tắc tổ chức và lưu từ. Chẳng qua, khi tách làm đôi, tôi có thêm thời gian và cơ hội dẫn dắt học viên tiếp cận hệ thống tương đối khó này từ 2 góc nhìn khác nhau, vừa ko lặp nguyên bài, vừa để họ có thể nắm bắt và dùng nó hiệu quả hơn.

Đã có kha khá phản hồi theo kiểu: lúc ở TẬP này em chỉ mới hiểu được bề mặt và khá vất vả để dùng PVO, xong đến lúc sang TẬP kia, học lại từ góc nhìn khác thì em vỡ ra rất nhiều thứ.

3. Nói thêm tại sao PVO lại khó dùng và challenging về mặt tư duy như vậy?

Bởi vì quan điểm của tôi khi học từ không đơn thuần là học thuộc lòng và dùng "vẹt". Mà nạp từ cũng cần áp tư duy/xử lý của não, vừa giúp ghi nhớ lâu hơn, vừa tăng mức độ chính xác của việc dùng từ chủ động trong tương lai.

Đặc biệt là do việc liên kết Examples với CONCEPT luôn dựa trên Core Message principle, khi chọn cấu trúc, học viên sẽ đi theo hướng nắm bắt thông điệp cơ bản bên dưới thay vì chọn từ theo lối lắp ghép - word for word đơn thuần trên bề mặt. Và hướng tới một mục tiêu cao hơn nữa: linh hoạt và sáng tạo khi sử dụng từ để tạo ra những câu hoàn toàn mới mà người bản xứ đọc vẫn thấy tự nhiên.

INTONATION

- Watch two different short scenes
 - The scenes have the same literal wording
 - See how differences in intonation and stress translate into differences in the intended meaning

Intonation/Stress ↔ Core Message

8. Thưa thầy, khi sử dụng PVO em có gặp trường hợp 1 example có tới 2 cấu trúc/từ vựng cần 2 highlight, mỗi cấu trúc/ từ vựng này lại có TMRND khác nhau mà trên PVO với mỗi example lại chỉ đc chỉnh TMRND 1 lần cố định. Trong trường hợp này thì e chỉ có thể ghi lại dưới note cho mỗi cấu trúc hoặc nhập example thành 2 lần và highlight 2 chỗ khác nhau thôi đúng k ạ?

TEXT

While Kim's death was mocked overseas on Twitter as an “epic loss to golf”, few North Koreans are likely to see the remarks. Surfing the web is impossible for most ordinary people. There is a nationwide intranet system called Kwangmyong but it is tightly controlled and does not provide a window to the outside world. “North Korea is still run as if it's the 1950s or 1960s,” said professor Andrei Lankov, a North Korea specialist at Seoul's Kookmin University. “There are a surprisingly large number of computers around but they are not connected to the internet, which is banned. All official radios have fixed tuning so you can listen only to the official broadcast,” he said.

PVO?

North Korea remains one of the world's most closed nations. Most of its citizens are banned from travelling abroad and visitors to the country are typically closely monitored and not permitted to stray from the capital. But information from outside is slowly seeping in, through smuggled mobile phones which connect to Chinese networks near the border and South Korean DVDs and videotapes imported clandestinely. “Thanks to the spread of these videos North Koreans came to realize that the official story about poor, desperate South Korea is a lie,” said Lankov. “North Koreans finally came to realize they are lagging behind. However, few of them realize how far behind.”

STRUCTURES

- Information from outside is slowly seeping in.
